

Contract for Participation in the Film J

Between: Artist / Director: _____

Participant: _____

Date of Signature: _____

Date of Filming: _____

1. Purpose

This contract governs participation in the artistic film J, including filming, rights, use of material, and the safety and working conditions during the production.

2. The Filming

The filming takes place in a large, bright studio in Copenhagen.

The date and time will be agreed in writing between the parties.

The filming consists of static and moving close-ups of various body parts, with no dialogue, no acting, and no psychological direction.

No physical contact occurs between the artist and the participant at any point.

The participant remains fully clothed throughout the filming.

The participant may bring a friend as an observer for the entire duration of the filming.

3. Rights

The artist holds the copyright to the film and all recorded material.

The participant hereby transfers the usage rights to all recordings, including still images, video material, and audio (if relevant).

The material may be used by the artist in connection with:

– exhibitions – film festivals – art projects – digital platforms – documentation of artistic practice

The participant may not edit, alter, or manipulate the recordings without written permission from the artist.

The participant may be granted permission to use the recordings for personal purposes (e.g., portfolio) if the artist provides written consent.

4. Use of the Film

This contract specifies precisely how the film and recordings may be used, ensuring that no doubt arises regarding rights or distribution. Any additional use not mentioned above requires a written agreement between the parties.

5. Fee

The participant receives a fee of 500 DKK, as well as refreshments during the filming.

6. Safety and Working Environment

The filming takes place in calm, professional surroundings.

The participant may request a break at any time.

The participant may stop the filming at any time, after which the material will not be used without a new written agreement.

There are no requirements for acting, emotional expression, or physical performance.

7. Confidentiality

Both parties commit to handling personal information and communication confidentially. The artist may not publish the participant's name without written permission.

8. Signatures

Artist / Director Name: _____

Signature: _____

Date: _____

Participant: _____